

Simple Estate Planning Clinic for Holocaust Survivors

Jewish Family & Career Services of Atlanta, Nelson Mullins, Alston & Bird, Atlanta Legal Aid Society, Inc., and Bet Tzedek will host a free estate planning clinic for Holocaust survivors living in the Atlanta area. A Russian interpreter will be available.

This legal aid clinic will provide simple wills and power of attorney documents for you at no cost.

Though this is a sensitive topic, this process gives you the control now to make decisions about your health care and estate in the future. These documents help to ensure your wishes are respected and make it easier for loved ones to make the right decisions for you.

When: June 25, 2019 from 10:00am – 2:30pm

Where: JF&CS of Atlanta | 4549 Chamblee Dunwoody Road, Atlanta 30338

How: Appointments are required - to schedule, please call 770-677-9318 and leave your name and number. We will contact you as soon as possible.
