

SHALOM BAYIT

Parenting After Abuse: Mothers Raising Children Exposed to Domestic Violence

A group for support and education surrounding the challenges of survivors raising children.

This group provides a confidential setting to connect with other mothers who have experienced relationship abuse. You will have opportunities to share experiences, discuss the challenges of co-parenting with an abusive partner, learn strategies to help support your children and restore belief in your own parenting. 8-week group at no

To join or for more information, contact Rebecca Brown at 770.677.9371 or rbrown@jfcsatl.org

The Shalom Bayit Program offers individual counseling, support groups, and referrals for individuals who have been abused and provides prevention, educational programming, and advocacy for social changes needed to eliminate violence in the home.

JFCSATL.ORG

Jewish Family & Career Services of Atlanta, Inc.

4549 Chamblee Dunwoody Road • Atlanta, GA 30338 • 770.677.9474

Funding provided by:

Jewish Federation
OF GREATER ATLANTA

United Way of Greater Atlanta